Notes:

1. How do I check what requirements I have outstanding? All requirements, if completed, are listed in your Hockey Canada Registry (HCR) profile. Some qualifications may take several days to appear in your profile after completion. Your HCR profile can be viewed in My Account via the Spordle interface: Login to <https://account.spordle.com/login> and ensure your HCR profile is linked to your login account. If you have not previously played or volunteered in organized hockey you first need to complete one of the courses above in order for your HCR profile to be created. For instructions on linking a profile to your login account or any other activities inside My Account on Spordle, click the "?" button at the bottom of any My Account page. Your Qualifications tab shows the courses and clinics you have completed (note the dates of validity). If you have signed the waivers for volunteers (includes Rowan's Law) for the season, they will appear under the Waivers tab. Your Background Check tab shows the date of your Vulnerable Sector Check and its expiry. For assistance please reach out to Registrar@flamboroughhockey.com

2. Items requiring renewal expire in the month of August regardless of the month in which the certification was obtained.

3. When all requirements have been completed, reimbursement for the items indicated can be requested from the Registrar@flamboroughhockey.com. Reimbursement cannot be given prior to completion of all requirements.
